Being connected with several large manufacturing establishments and importing houses at the East, giving us an advantage over any other Mercantile House in the State, and having had a long and successful business in the city, and our established principles of doing business being well known to every city and country customer, to be of the most liberal character, we refer ourselves that we can say with safety that we consider competition quite out of the question.
We would say to

Madison, July 18, 1856

To our Weekly Subscribers.

In consequence of a large addition to our weekly list, during the past few days, the edition of our last Weekly (yesterday) fell unexpectedly short, and we have sent copies of to-day's Daily to some of our Subscribers, instead of the Weekly. Next week, we shall endeavor to have enough copies of the Weekly printed to supply the demand.

A Duel in Prospect.

The telegraph reports that Bully BROOKS, not content with the fame he has earned for his brave assault with a bludgeon upon an unarmed and unresisting Senator, now covets the opportunities of shooting down, in single combat, a member of the House of Representatives. Mr BURLINGAME is the gentleman upon whom Bully BROOKS proposes to try his hand, and it is said that Mr BURLINGAME is willing to give him an opportunity. It is with such arguments, the bludgeon, the pistol and the bowie-knife that the champions of slavery reply to Free Speech, and it is not surprising that it should be so—SLAVERY is the Law of Force, and by force only can it be maintained, defended or justified. But it is surprising that men can be found in the Free North to uphold this accursed institution, and even to aid and abet its introduction into Territories yet free from its Upas breath and falsifying touch.

ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS.—It is now thought that Congress will adjourn by the 15th of August, both houses having fixed upon that day. Members are anxious to be at home in order to take a hand in the coming Presidential contest

Democracy for Club Law and against Free Speech.

The vote in the House of Representatives, upon the question of expelling the cowardly ruffian, Brooks, eminently deserves to be "kept before the People." That remarkable specimen of South Carolina "chivalry," taking offence at "words spoken in debate" by Senator SUMNER of Massachusetts, armed himself with bludgeon and pistol, and attended by one of his friends proceeded to the Senate Chamber, and there attacked, knocked down and brutally beat a member of that Senate, sitting in his place, in the discharge of his duties, taken unawares, unarmed and unresisting. And when arraigned and condemned, by the vote of the majority of the House, for this dastardly act, this Brooks unblushingly declared that had Mr. SUMNER successfully defended himself against this bludgeon attack, he (Brooks) "would have done that for which he would have been sorry the rest of his life"—in other words, that he was armed and would have shot down Mr. SUMNER on the floor of the American Senate!

The vote to expel this ruffian, as our readers know, stood yeas 121, nays 95. Of the yeas, 113 were Opposition Members, and only six democrats. Of the nays, 87 were opposition (all Know Nothings) and 62 Democrats. Every REPUBLICAN Member in the House voted for the expulsion of the Bully, while all but six of the Democratic Members voted to retain him. By this vote the Slave Democracy in Congress deliberately placed themselves on the side of Club Law and against Free Speech; voting for and sustaining at Washington the same odious, unmanly and un-American doctrines which those active electioneering agents of the party, the "Border Ruffians," preach and practice in Kansas. Is it possible that the FARMERS of the North, accustomed from their earliest breath to regard Freedom of Thought, of Speech, and of the Press, as among the inestimable privileges of American citizenship, will join hands with a party which answers arguments with a bludgeon and screens, by its votes, the intending assassin who brutally beat and was prepared to murder an American Senator, in the very Temple of Free Discussion, the United States Senate Chamber, for "words spoken in debate?"

Congressional Convention.

The call for a Republican Convention on the 27th of August at Mineral Point, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress in this district, will be found in to-day's paper. We have no doubt but that C C. Washburne, our present faithful and efficient Representative, will be nominated for re-election. As far as we can learn the feeling is unanimous in favor of him.—He has been tried and not found wanting. He has never been found absent from his post of duty, except when confined to his bed by sickness. He has attended faithfully to the interests of his constituents, and his vote will be found recorded on the side of freedom, equal rights and justice every time. The opposition conceede his re-election in case of his nomination.—Madison Journal.

We are glad to see this timely movement in the Second District and hope to see it promptly followed up by calls for similar Conventions in the First and Third. The Journal, no doubt, reflects the sentiments of the People, in expressing its decided preference for Mr. WASHBURNE. We have no doubt that he will be unanimously re-nominated and that his constituents will gladly re elect one who has served them so faithfully.—In the Third District, we presume that Mr. BILLINGHURST, whose votes are the best possible test of his fidelity to principle, will receive the like meed of approbation from his numerous constituency. In this, the First District, we have, as yet, heard of but one name in connection with the nomination; that of Judge PORTER, of Walworth County, a true and reliable man, who will do credit to the State and prove faithful, under all possible circumstances, to the Cause of Freedom. It is desirable, nevertheless, that both in this and the Third Districts, our Congressional Conventions should be called early, our candidates formally placed in the field, and our forces everywhere thoroughly organized and mustered for the contest. In this State, and in every District of the State, Victory is certain, if we but make the effort which the magnitude of the interests at stake demands of every man who loves Liberty and is faithful to the Constitution and the Union.

The "Champion" of Slavery.

The Charleston Mercury, the leading organ of South Carolina "Democracy," is zealously enlisted in the Buchanan cause and chaunts the praises of this Veteran Federalist in its every issue.—A portion of the "Chivalry" had objected to his "old Federalism," and to his doubtful position on the Slavery question. The Mercury, in answer, treats the first objection as of no account, and as to the latter, insists that the South has never had a more devoted friend in the public Councils than Mr. BUCHANAN. The Mercury says:

"But, in order that the absurdity of the charge of Mr. Buchanan's being a "freesoiler" may, if possible, become apparent, we need only cite the fact, that, two years ago, he signed the Ostend Manifesto, a document whose sole object was to acquire Cuba, out of which two or three Slave states could have been formed. Here, then, is the record. The champion of the admission of Kansas—the champion of the admission of Texas—the champion of the acquisition of Cuba—where is the fact, or suspicion of Freesoilism in all this? Whatever are Mr. Buchanan's projudices against Slavery, his votes and his acts are with us."

By these "votes and acts" Mr. Buchanan must be judged. He has always been the Champion of SLAVERY, and if, in an evil hour, he should be elected President, SLAVERY would be the predominant influence of this Administration. Let the FREEMEN of the Republic guard against such a calamity

Hunting in Couples.

The Know-Nothing and Democratic presses, natural allies, rival each other, just now, in malignant efforts to depreciate the services, misrepresent the opinions and tarnish the fair fame of JOHN C FREMONT. Until his name was presented by the Philadelphia Convention as a suitable candidate for the Presidency, all parties agreed in speaking of Col. FREMONT as one who had rendered important services to his country and to mankind, and who had fairly earned the civic crown which had been placed upon his brow.—But now that he is a candidate for the Presidency, the tune is changed and Democrats and Know-Nothings join in the cry against him, and help each other in the laudable effort to blacken his reputation.

On the one hand, such reckless sheets as the News here, the Beaver Dam Sentinel, the Madison Argus and all of that sort, impudently and falsely proclaim that Col. FREMONT is a "Know-Nothing." On the other, their loving allies of the New York Express, Buffalo Commercial, Albany Statesman, and other Know-Nothing sheets, boldly insist that Col. FREMONT is a Catholic. The one lie contradicts the other, and we only refer to these twain fabrications to show what a bond of sympathy exists between the Know-Nothings and Democrats. They "hunt in couples," and the noble quarry they seek to run down is the standard-bearer of Freedom, JOHN C. FREMONT. Let the American people see to it that their strong arms uphold him in this great battle and defend him alike against his Know-Nothing and his Democratic enemies and maligners.

What Laboring Men must Expect.

We commend the following extract from one of the Buchanan organs in Charleston, South Carolina, to the attention and consideration of the laboring men of the North:

ANY provocation that may have been given for the assault upon him by the body of waiters, was at the most a provocation of words, AND SUCH A PROVOCATION, AS A SERVANT SHOULD NOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO RESENT; AND, IF WHITE MEN ACCEPT THE OFFICES OF MENIALS, IT SHOULD BE EXPECTED THAT THEY WILL DO SO WITH AN APPREHENSION OF THEIR RELATION TO SOCIETY, AND THE DISPOSITION QUIETLY TO ENCOUNTER BOTH THE RESPONSIBILITIES AND LIABILITIES WHICH THE RELATION IMPOSES.—Charleston (S. C.) Standard.

Great Meeting at Belleville.

Bissell and Kramer on the Stump.

One the 12th instant, a great gathering of Freemen, estimated at five thousand in number, took place in Belleville, in St. Clair County.—From six hundred to one thousand delegates were present from St. Louis, who declared that they came to show by a visible sign their utter detestation of Border Ruffianism. Col. Wm. H. Bissell addressed the assembly in a speech of great eloquence and power, and he was followed by Lieut. Gov. KREMER, who declared his unalterable determination to support the Philadelphia nominees, earnestly, heartily, zealously, for which declaration he was most heartily cheered. Mr. HECKER was prostrate with sickness, but sent the following letter:

To the Committee of the Anti Nebraska Ratification Meeting in Belleville —

RESPECTED SIRS—I request you to read to the meeting, which I fear to assemble, the following words

If the condition of my health were such as to permit me to be transported, I would have been carried to Belleville, and, failing in that, I do think a band of desperate Nebraska knights will endeavor to make use of the fact of my absence, in a manner so particularly their own.

Such a such know that, as soon as I shall be able barely to stand up, even if my health be not fully restored, I will speak to the people of St Clair and adjoining counties on the great question of the day; and that I will endeavor to show how the honor of the German name and the German nation, how hatred against aristocratic pretensions and tyranny, render it the holy, the unavoidable duty of every man of the German tongue, to enter the list against slavery and aristocracy, how only the most sophisticated, the most forced perversion of the finest Constitution of the freest country, can assert, much to the rejoicing of all the oppressors and despisers of men, that it establishes Slavery as the rule, and Freedom as the exception, how those only maintain firmly and faithfully the spirit and the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution who oppose Slavery and its extension, thus upholding this Constitution spotless, a blessed gospel for all the oppressed and trodden of the earth, and carrying its banner without stain over all the globe. Desiring you to consider me as voting with those who endorse the Philadelphia Platform, and the ticket nominated upon it, and no less with those who support the resolutions adopted at the Bloomington State Convention, and the State ticket, I sign myself,

Yours Respectfully,
F. HECKER.

We repeat this letter of Mr. HECKER's, because it was marred, in yesterday's Sentinel, by the omission of part of a sentence.

Kansas Shut against Illinois Emigrants—Further Outrages upon Our Citizens.

LAWRENCE, K. T, July 10 1856

To the Editor of the Alton Courier

Missouri has shut the doors of Kansas against the citizens of Illinois, as, indeed, against all settlers from free States. The pretense to search for arms is made to screen piracy and highway robbery, and the free State emigrants, under the beautiful working of "Squatter Sovereignty," are shut out from the public heritage. The right to bear arms is a great Constitutional right, in Kansas it is also a great necessity. These thieves and murderers who pour over in armed bands to molest us, say we must first be disarmed and then free State settlers must not enter the Territory. Illinoisans, have you come to this? What do you think of Stephen A. Douglas, the abettor of these robbers and murderers? Where is your Governor? Where your State rights?

Listen to the following statement of one of the members of a party recently stopped while coming to Kansas

SLOKER.

STATEMENT OF J. B. BALDWIN.

The undersigned started in company with eight families from McLean county, Ill; for Kansas on the 22d of last May. Those were John Vetoto and family, two of his sons with their families, Benjamin Draper and family; James Hancock and family; Riddle Roberts and family; Mr Dibble and family Besides these, the company was augmented by three wagons containing two families who came from Iowa, and overtook them while travelling through Missouri. The men who started from Illinois had a large lot of agricultural implements and articles of household furniture, and they travelled in the style in which Western overland emigrants usually travel. They proceeded on their journey unmolested until they reached within about four miles of Platte City. While travelling on the State road there, on Tuesday, the 24th of June, this company was met by a large band of armed men, at least 150, who had guns and bayonets, United States arms, these men stopped the emigrants. The evening before, while in camp, they had been visited by three spies, who asked them a great many questions, told them they would find a great deal of trouble in the Territory, and some of it before they got there

When the company stopped the emigrants they asked them where they were from and whither going. Undersigned, who was driving the first team, said they were from Illinois and were going to Kansas. On this the Captain of the company said,

"I suppose you've heard tell that we don't allow any movers to go through into the Territory," to which witness answered he had not. "Yes," replied several, "we stop all." They then said they would have to search if there was any arms on board. One man from Iowa objected, when they told him he had better be quiet, and one man drew a revolver and told him he "had better shut up."

They then searched the wagons, rummaging every box and every corner and cut threats and insults After searching all the wagons once, they returned and searched them all a second time Several articles disappeared in this process. One man says they took $160 in gold, from him

The wife of Mr. Draper had put $1,600 in a churn, and covered it with salt, and they did not find it They professed to be searching for arms They found a gun for most of the men who were with the emigrant train—these were mostly Western rifles and shot guns, being the guns they had when they lived in Illinois. All of these were taken. They then told the emigrants that they could not be permitted to go on that they must not go into Kansas.

Several men in the company, who attacked them, and who appeared to be more decent, wished the emigrants to get back their guns, as they were to be sent home to Illinois. Several speeches were made on it, when a vote was taken and the large majority decided that they should have the guns The leaders of the company, and influential men were opposed to this, and overruled it, and the others yielded, when they determined the matter. Receipts were given for the guns as follows

Received of ——, one long Western rifle, has been used, (here marks described,) to be deposited with the County Clerk of Platte County, to be delivered at the end of the war.

These receipts were signed by two of the men, whom the others said were good, responsible men During all this time men continued to arrive, and nearly two-thirds of all that came were armed with United States muskets and bayonets, all were well armed. Nearly one hundred got to the point of stoppage before three hours. Emigrants were told that they would be guarded back all, they got out of the State Some of the emigrants asked these men if they could not be allowed to stay there with their teams until the difficulties were settled, so that they could go over into the Territory. They replied that they could not, unless they would agree to settle permanently. If they would pledge themselves to stay in Platte County, and would buy farms, and conform to the institutions of that country, they could stay, in which case "they would be taken care of." Not valuing these privileges too highly they declined. A guard of eight mounted and armed men escorted them back to Liberty, where they were delivered up to the leading men in the place, Judge Thompson being an active participant in this hospitable reception. They were here permitted to go out to the back of the town where they could water their teams and find grass for them.

That afternoon the good folks about Liberty came out to them and told them they were at liberty; that they could go where they pleased provided that they did not go into the Territory, but would go back to Illinois. The truth was, they did not like the trouble and expense of escorting them clear across the State. Hoping to be able to make their escape, they stood where they were for two days, when some men came out of Liberty, and assuring them that they were their friends, advised them to start back for Illinois immediately, for if anything happened or devilment was done, they would be held responsible for it, and would be sure to get into trouble.

The emigrants took up their line of march, and travelled some ten miles back into Missouri.

Here they rented houses, and are staying there at present. The undersigned had a father in the Territory, and wishing to know how affairs were here, and to see what chance there was to get over, he travelled as quietly as he could, on foot, for the Territory. While in Missouri he was often stopped and asked where he was going and where he came from, to which he replied that he was staying in Missouri, (which was too true,) upon which they did not molest him After he reached the Territory he had no difficulty. JOHN B. BALDWIN.

Letter from Gen. Sam. Houston.

The American party in Huntsville held a meeting on the 26th ult., and ratified the nomination of FILLMORE and DONELSON. At the meeting the following letter from Gen. SAM. HOUSTON was read:

HUNTSVILLE, June 24, 1856.

GENTLEMEN: You have my thanks for an invitation to join the American party in a barbecue, on the 26th inst., and address the assembly in behalf of the principles of our party.

It would afford me sincere gratification to comply with your request, if it comported with my health, which is not entirely restored, and my sense of public duty.

By the first stage that leaves, which will be to-night, I hope to be able to set out for Washington city. Whether or not, it will be in my power, on my arrival there, to render any important or essential service to the country, I am unable to say, but certainly there has been no epoch in the annals of America fraught with higher considerations of interest to the well-being of our country than the present. The agitation in our country must cease, harmony must be restored and union preserved, or we must cease to be a free and happy people. To aid in the accomplishment of these objects is the duty of every citizen, every statesman and every patriot who claims to be an American. In haste, your friend and fellow-citizen,

SAM. HOUSTON.

TO W W. LEACH, R M. HOGUE, B. W. WALKER, S. R SMITH, J. A McDANIEL.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN IN HIS GIG.—It is now but a century since Benjamin Franklin, Postmaster General of the American colonies, by appointment of the crown, set out in his gig to make an official inspection of the principal routes. It is about eighty years since he held the same office under the authority of Congress, when a small folio (now preserved in the department at Washington), containing but three quires of paper, lasted as his account book for two years. These simple facts bring before us, more forcibly than an elaborate description, the vast increase in Post Office facilities within a hundred years.—For, if a Postmaster General were to undertake to pass all over the routes at present existing, it would require six years of incessant railroad travel at the rate of 125 miles daily; while if he were to undertake the job in an "old gig," he would require a life time for its performance. Instead of a small folio, with its three quires of paper, the post-office accounts consume every two years 3 000 of the largest sized ledgers, keeping not less than one hundred clerks constantly employed in recording transactions with 20,000 contractors and other persons.

OUT FOR FARMING.—Col. Zebulon P. Burdick, who was democratic candidate for the Assembly in this District but fell, has declared his purpose to give his vote and influence for the election of John C. Fremont. If there was a convention held to-day in Rock County composed of all who were members of the democratic party three years ago, it would denounce Buchanan and endorse Fremont.—Janesville Free Press.

Letter from Martin Grover—The Democracy of Western New York.

ANGELICA, July 5th, 1856

Hon. J. G. HOYT.—Dear Sir:—Yours of the 2d inst, inviting me to attend a ratification meeting at Buffalo on Tuesday evening next, is read I cannot possibly comply. My business is such that I cannot leave here until after the circuit.—You say that you was gratified to learn that I was in favor of Free Soil, Free Speech, and Fremont. I should have thought you would have been surprised had I not been so. Through my whole life I have been opposed to the extension of Slavery to Free Territory. I have never doubted the power of Congress to prohibit it in the Territories, and that it was their duty so to exercise that power as to prevent its extension.—This doctrine I learned years ago. It was Democratic doctrine, and this it was that attached thousands to the party. Now, it is utterly repudiated by the Cincinnati Convention and its direct opposite announced as the fundamental principles of the party. Under such circumstances it is to be expected that every honest man, believing in the principles of Jefferson, will at once denounce the Cincinnati Platform, and when he sees Mr. Buchanan declaiming that he is not simply James Buchanan, a candidate for the Presidency, but the platform, will at once oppose him. What then are they to do? It is not the nature of the American people to remain indifferent to public affairs. They must act, and in acting, support these principles

The Republican Convention at Philadelphia clearly announced the principles dear to, and long cherished by every true Democrat, and I am surprised that one should be found to greet a moral coward as to be deterred from doing his duty by a senseless cry of Black Republicanism, Abolitionism, or anything of the sort. When you find such a one, be assured he was never a true Democrat, but followed the camp like a hungry shark following a ship for the heads and plucks that might be thrown overboard You say that Democrats are coming out with you every day. Not so here. They nearly all in concurvely at once threw up (as Col Benton says) the Cincinnati platform, and thus having cleaned their stomachs, swallowed the Philadelphia platform none the less eagerly, because Fremont stood upon it.

I assure you, if we do not give a larger vote than St. Lawrence does, it will only be exceeded by the latter, for the reason that in the latter days of the country she has more people and more Democrats than this county. Occasionally one of our people returns from a journey to Buffalo or some where else, and comes back astonished to have met some one on his travels going for Fillmore for President. True, they have all read something about his being a candidate in the papers, but all regarded it as a joke. The favorite measure of his administration has about as many friends here as a proposition for Congress to abolish Slavery in Cuba would command,

Yours truly,
MARTIN GROVER

Paris Gossip.

PARIS, June 29.

As fast as one Prince leaves another arrives. Napoleon will have to enlarge his summer and winter palaces, so as to obviate the awkward necessity of compelling a visitor to leave the same day another arrives. Thus the Prince Oscar of Sweden left in the morning of Saturday last, and in the afternoon the reigning prince of Baden took his place. His place will in turn be taken, so it is said, by King Otho of Greece, and he will be followed by the Emperor of Austria. Napoleon has not only conquered the good opinion, but has conquered the pride of the monarchs of Europe, and for the future Paris will become as well the rendezvous of monarchs as of their subjects.

The absence of the lady of the British Ambassador from all recent official fêtes has drawn upon her rudyship many singular criticisms in French society For years Lady Cowley has been the object of active jealousy; on the part of the French ladies high at court, on account of the large share of the Emperor's attention which she never failed to secure. As the wife of the British Ambassador, (for the Pope's Nuncio cannot be a married man,) she occupies the first place among the ladies of the diplomatic corps It is nothing more were wanting, this fact would secure her special attention from his Majesty, but Lady Cowley is, besides, much admired by Napoleon. The consequence is that the dances with her frequently on grand occasions, to the exclusion of many French ladies, who deem such favors their own right, and thus you will readily see how Lady Cowley inspires the jealousy of her sisters. But all this favoritism of his Majesty has had the effect of spoiling her ladyship a little, and thus we see that, whenever another takes her place, she in turn grows jealous, and carries her jealousy to a point of abstaining from the Court During the late ceremonies, the Duchess of Hamilton, a relative of the Emperor, was in Paris, and to this lady his Majesty always gives his arm, and with her he dances the quadrille d'honneur. And it was precisely on account of the precedence given to this lady that Lady Cowley refused the various invitations to Court on the occasions of the late fêtes.

The Count Lanscome made a bet a few days ago that he could make his English hunting horse John Bull trot a distance of one kilometre backwards in six minutes. The feat was undertaken between the Round Points of the Champs Elysees and the Obelisk of the Place Concorde. From the Round Point to the grand entrance of the Exhibition the Count walked his horse, but here he commenced to trot, and from this point to the Obelisk he gradually pushed him faster and faster until he arrived at the end, in five minutes and thirty seven seconds. The last twenty rods were accomplished at a rate of speed which put to the test the full trotting powers of some of the horses mounted by the witnesses of this singular feat.

If the gossips tell the truth, the secret of Rachell's sudden sickness and abandonment of the American enterprise is now out. It is said she has retired to a secluded spot in the Pyrenees for her health, or in other words, to give Lent attention to an expected increase of family It is said—any one of her returned company is responsible for the on dit—that Rachel met in New York, among the distinguished French refugees in that city, a friend of younger days, and the complainant asserts that this gentleman is responsible for the shipwreck of the Rachel company and all the evils which followed it. Who is he that has such a weighty sin upon his shoulders?

This explains the remark constantly made by Mademoiselle Rachel, that her malady was not dangerous—that her American tour was only interrupted, and that she yet hoped to return and finish it. It explains, also, why she gets no worse, under the effects of a violent cough which has harrassed her incessantly since her return, and explains, also, why she has remained concealed in her country house. The admirers of the great tragedienne are in ecstacies to learn that her malady is one from which she has frequently recovered before, for now they have hopes that in a given time they may expect to see their favorite on the boards again.

The Fremont Ticket in Kentucky.

The following is the Fremont Electoral ticket for Kentucky, which was formed by a convention which met at State Lick Springs, Madison County). The ticket is comprised of the following named persons:

Senatorial Electors—1. C. M. Clay, of Madison county, 2. George D. Blakey, of Logan county.

Representatives—1. Edgar Needham, of Louisville, 2. J. H. Rawlings, of Madison county; 3. Rev. J. H. Davis, of Lewis county; 4. J. Grazebrook, of Barren county; 5. J. H. Whitemore of Campbell county; 6. David Morgan, of Floyd county; 7. V. Hamilton, of Bracken county; 8. Jas. Lashbrooks, of Davies county; 9. Green Shells, of Jessamine county; 10, John Wash of Anderson county.

The Louisville Courier compliments the party on their moral courage in forming an Electoral ticket, and proceeds to argue that now that State is sure for BUCHANAN and BRECKENRIDGE On the other hand the Louisville Journal says the FREMONT ticket will draw off a large German vote from BUCHANAN, and thus secure the State to FILLMORE by over twenty-five thousand majority.

The Victims of the Railroad Disaster.

The Philadelphia Bulletin of Saturday furnishes the following additional particulars

The Seventeenth Ward, where most of the victims resided, was literally thrown into mourning. Every street had its closed shutters, and other signs of woe, and wailing and lamentation were heard upon all sides among the excited people.

There is still much confusion regarding the killed and the wounded. This is owing to several causes. In the first place, many of the bodies are so shockingly mutilated that they cannot be recognized. Others, it is believed, were entirely consumed in the flames. Many of the wounded were taken in charge by their friends, and their names will probably never be known outside their immediate circle.

The total number of dead and missing, whose names are known, is fifty. And to this the six bodies unrecognized makes an aggregate of fifty-six killed. Others who are wounded will inevitably die.

A CURIOUS FACT.—It seems of the ninety-one counties in Indiana the inhabitants of eighty can leave home in the morning, go to Indianapolis by railroad, attend to business there from two to eight hours, and return home the same evening.

Notice to Young American Speakers.

At a grand rally of the Fremont Central Union Club of New York, on Tuesday evening last, Mr. G. W. Curtis, the accomplished writer and lecturer, spoke as follows:

The hope of our country is in its young men. They have the heart full of faith, and of hope, they have the hand which is firm and strong, untouched by the chill of age, they are pledged by these, and by everything dearest in man's history to this cause which history celebrates and poets and literature applaud

It is, therefore, with the greatest pleasure that I meet you here to night, because the auspices of your surround the cause of Liberty, which is forever young It is the cause of our country, yet standing in the full flush of youth, with all the promise of future greatness and prosperity.

Ever cause honors itself, or, in proportion as it honors those who have been its victims. And I cannot fail to remind you that, since the issue was presented to the people, the slave power has chosen for its most illustrious champion that man who is so worthy a representative of the young men of the North—who stands in the Senate almost its youngest member. He is the man who in every way, by the natural grace of his mind—the singular accomplishments of his manner—his beautiful thoughts and his noble character—by all those qualities which mark an eminently elevated, stands forth once more our North man representative.

Sir There is a chivalry of great—of morals—of principle—of accomplishments. There is a chivalry of character. Such was the chivalry of Hamp den, of Hampden, and of Sidney such was the chivalry of Charles Sumner. [Deafening applause.] Sir, I must add to this that the man is one of no let kind of chivalry, and its symbol, moral and physical, is the gutta-percha cane

I am at not fail to mention one other emblem of youth that surrounds our cause We go into the battle with a man at our head who is a young man, who is distinguished for those traits that make men beautiful and honored by their country, and who enters into this contest with a character unparalleled in our history except by that of George Washington [Loud applause and cheers for Fremont.]

The issue of this contest has raised an enthusiasm among young men—an enthusiasm of nobility, which has never before existed—for the reason that, heretofore, in our Presidential contests, the issues, though important, have been to a certain extent, temporary, whereas, the issue now presented strikes at the very root of our government, and involves the principles of government itself. It is for this reason that an enthusiasm is aroused from the Atlantic to the Pacific, which is sweeping and surging on our country like a mighty river As the sacred Nile rises and sweeps over the arid and barren lands of Egypt, purifying and cleansing—as it sweeps on over every valley and nook, leaving the seed of its inundation—even so the enthusiasm of the youth of this country is rising over the land made barren by political corruption and it will sweep out, and cleanse, and purify, and leave the seeds of a noble and unparalleled prosperity. [This sentiment was received with the greatest enthusiasm and applause.]

Border Ruffian Violence.

County after county in Illinois is rolling into the list of those whose representatives have been butchered in cold blood for opinion's sake. And as if for the more clearly demonstrating the enormity of such an outrage, these representatives hail from the Democratic party, and endorsed Squatter Sovereignty in a majority of instances.

We are now called upon to record the murder of Martin White, of Christian county. Mr. White was well known to most of the early settler of that county. He was one of the most unflinching Democrats—a Baptist preacher. He once represented that county in the State Legislature. We learn the following facts in regard to his murder from the Springfield Journal of the 14th inst:

Mr. White removed to Kansas. He went there as a Democrat; but when he found that no man there was recognized as a Democrat unless he was in favor of Slavery over Kansas, and sustained the outrages of the Missouri and other Southern ruffians, as an honest man he could no longer continue his connection with that party, and, like a great number of others who went to Kansas as Democrats—such men as De Shay, Shoemaker, and many more known to us—he espoused the party which favored a Free State, Free Speech and a Free Press

Some few days since a gathering of Free State men in the Territory was interrupted by a gang of the lawless ruffians from the South. Mr White, being a prominent man, endeavored to divide them from violence. The Free State men only desired peace. They went to Kansas to make it their home, they wished to make improvements, and live in quietness. Their object could be accomplished only by peace. They claimed the right, as citizens of the United States to enjoy their opinions, together with a free expression of their sentiments on public questions which affected their welfare.

The only response to these reasonable remarks was, which, it our constitution and laws are worth any thing, were guaranteed to him—was the discharge upon him of a number of rifles and guns. He fell, pierced with seven balls, either of which would have killed him."

The Black Mail Circulars.

It appears from the following letter from the Post Master General, that "Perrin M Brown," did actually issue a circular to the country Post-Masters, but he did it on his own account in order to make a speculation.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
July 14th, 1856

DEAR SIR—Your letter of the 10th inst has just been received, for which I am much indebted The circular signed "Perrin M. Brown," addressed to the Post Master of Lansingburgh, and forwarded by you, is an infamous fraud There is no person of that name in this city; but some individual assuming it, engaged a box in the Post Office here, with a view to aid him in carrying out his dishonest purpose, and but for the timely exposure which has been made of it, would no doubt have succeeded, to some extent at least. As soon as the matter was brought to my knowledge, I gave instructions for his arrest; but he has not since ventured to call for his letters.

If any are received, they will go to the Dead Letter office, and any money they may contain, will be returned to the writers.

I am respectfully,
Your ob't servant,
JAMES CAMPBELL.

ANOTHER SHANGHAI ACCESSION.—On our return from Madison, yesterday, we found in our possession "a live coon," in a box, marked, "J F SHARPSTEIN, Editor of the News, care of Gen KING, stock of 1840"

To our friend and cotemporary, Gen. KING, we tender our thanks, for the safe and prompt delivery of this "same Old Coon."—News.

Quite welcome, neighbour. The "Coon" was sent to us with the request that it should be delivered to the editor of the News. The following explanatory note accompanied the box.

OAK GROVE STATION, July 17.

GEN'L KING—

Dear Sir:—I send you a Live Coon to present to the Editor of the News. It may remind him of 1840, when he and Barston were Whigs.

SAM'L.

The Milwaukee Sentinel charges us with originating the fabrication that Fremont is a Know Nothing and Slaveholder. The charge that he is a Know Nothing is a self-evident proposition needing no proof. The charge that he is a slave holder was made upon the authority of Hon. A. D. Lewis of Boston.—Beaver Dam Sentinel.

Both the "self-evident proposition" and the charge fathered upon the "Hon. A. J. Lewis, of Boston," are pure inventions. In neither story is there one word of truth. And those who put forth these fabrications are perfectly aware of their character and only use them to deceive the more ignorant and prejudiced of their followers But such weapons will not win against the hosts and the arms of FREEDOM.

EARLY CONTRACTS FOR HOGS.—During the last two weeks, we have heard of several contracts for Hogs, for November delivery, and there is no doubt that a good deal is doing in this way, but the particulars have been kept as private as possible. The highest rate paid, that we have heard of, was $5,75, but it was rumored that as high as $6 has been paid for a lot to be delivered by the 10th of November, and to average two hundred and ten pounds. The desire to enter into these contracts on the part of provision dealers is not general by any means, and, with the experience of last season before them, it is not likely it will become so at any time between this and the opening of the packing season, except at much lower rates.—Cincinnati Price Current, July 9.

☞ SAD ACCIDENT.—We learn that on Friday evening of the 11th inst., Edward F. Wolcot of Eldorado, while driving a team home from Rosendale, was thrown from the beak-board on which he sat, and the wheel passing over his head, killing him instantly He was the son of Wm. C. Wolcot of Eldorado, aged 21 years.—Fond du Lac Herald.

STEAMER PLANET DISABLED.—By Capt Tompkins of the steamer Lady Elgin, from Lake Superior yesterday, we learn that the steamer Planet burst her boiler near Marquette, by which she will have to lay up a month or so, or through the traveling season She was bound up, and the North Star took her passengers on, after towing the wreck to Marquette (14 miles) The Gen Taylor towed her back to near Grand Island, whence she was taken by the Lady Elgin to the Sault St Marie, on her way to Detroit—When found, the Planet's engine was all broken up, both ends of her cylinder stove in, &c.—Chicago Tribune, of yesterday

Political Signs in Pennsylvania.

We receive at this office sixty-five political newspapers from the State of Pennsylvania published there. They are divided between the three leading political parties in the following proportions—For Buchanan there are 41, with a circulation of 32,000, for Fillmore there are 8, with a circulation of 1,700, while for Fremont there are 41, with a circulation of 33,512 Who will say that Pennsylvania is not in an incipient state of revolution.—N Y Herald.

Interesting Documents.

A number of documents from Washington arrived at the Post Office yesterday, per Golden Gate, addressed to Ned McGowan, Billy Mulligan, Charles Duane and Joe P Casey. They were booked by the Hon. Joe T Herbert The question is, where shall they be sent to The fact of an assessin there co responding with assassins and their associates here, speaks volumes.—California and Bulletin, June 16th.

TO OUR COUNTRY FRIENDS.—We have ascertained the whereabouts of a man in this city who supports the Buchanan ticket because he likes the platform

Strangers from the country desire to see the curiosities the city affords, can obtain the address of the Buchanan by calling on us.—Chicago Journal

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT, JULY 22.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE

Christina Tesch, fast driving, on bridge, fined $2. John Johnson, drunk and disorderly, fined $3. John Vanderwerker, drunk, fined $1. Michael Meyers, drunk, second offence 5 days in jail in default of $2. Enoch Reasons, drunk, fined $1. John M Chesney, disorderly, fined $3.

Darby Carney on a trial for resisting Policeman Burden in the execution of the duty, the evidence for the prosecution was heard, when the City Attorney moved to discontinue the suit. This motion was objected to by Carney's counsel, on behalf of the prisoner, who claimed that as it was a jury trial the defendant was entitled to its procedure to save delay. The Court explained at some length his reasons for entering the discontinuance, citing the Statute, Sec 31 of Chap 59

Warrants were then issued against Darby Carney and two others, against whom discontinuance was entered, charging them with resisting officers under the Statute

In this case we allude to that of Carney only a strong question arises. The defendant was on trial before a jury of his peers and after all the evidence for the prosecution was given in, the City Attorney who was prosecuting him entered a discontinuance. Can he be tried again for the same offence? Was he not entitled to a verdict from the jury? And when he case reaches Circuit Court can he not avail himself of that provision of the Constitution of the State which says—"And no person for the same offence shall be put twice in jeopardy of punishment," Sec 8, Art 1, of Constitution

The examination was adjourned for to day at 2 o'clock

MILWAUKEE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The second exhibition of this Society for the present season, will take place on the afternoon and evening of Thursday next, and as the same time that we remind our readers of this fact, we also wish to urge upon them the importance and necessity of sustaining, in a liberal manner, a Society of this nature. Though our Milwaukee Horticultural Society has been established but a very few years, yet the amount of benefit our citizens have indirectly received from it has been immense. Look at the shade trees which have been planted, the various dingy to our dwellings, shrubbery and flowers all indicate a rapidly growing taste for these things, which has received its impulse from this Society. We say to all, send to Young's Hall, upon the day of the exhibition, the best you may have in your garden at the time, let it be fruit, flowers or vegetables and in the afternoon and evening attend the exhibition in person, thereby aiding and joining to the most delightful of all recreations, the study and admiration of nature

Young's Hall will be open for the reception of articles for exhibition, on Thursday, up to 8 o'clock P M

MILITARY FUNERAL.—The remains of the late GILBERT M ZARN were followed to the grave, yesterday afternoon, by his comrades of the Light Guard and a long or cession of mourning relatives and sympathising friends. Appropriate funeral services were performed at the house by the Rev Mr BOWMAN, and at the close of the ceremonies at the grave the escort fired three volleys as the soldier's last tribute to the memory of a departed friend and comrade

THREATENING TO DESTROY HIMSELF.—A young man named Dawes was arrested last night by Policeman Wright and Kessler, on a charge of threatening to destroy himself. He had purchased some morphine and threatened to take it, stating that he was tired of life—every body was against him, and he was going to end his life. On searching him a quantity of pot on was found upon him. On his promise not to attempt it again he was liberated, and a Policeman sent to see him home and to bed. His father is said to be Commodore of the Navy Yard, at Charlestown, Massachusetts

MYSTERIOUS OCCURRENCE.—A MAN'S HEAD FOUND IN THE RIVER.—Yesterday afternoon the head of a man, which had been cut from the body, was found in the river by a boy who was coming up in a boat. What was done with it we do not know. Inquests are not the order of the day these times

On Friday last, 2 pairs of "dungaree" overalls, a red cotton handkerchief and a linen shirt German linen, with the letters G B marked on the breast were found secreted under a pile of lumber near Captain Barbers ship yard. There was a good deal of blood on the front of the shirt

We have heard a note writing the above, that the head was found near the spot where the clothes were

GOOD TIME.—Goods consigned to Knapp, Hawkins & Co, Chicago, came through by the Buckeye State, from Boston, in seven days, including Sunday.—This is making very good time, and recommends the route to the favor of business men, as well as pleasure seekers

For the Sentinel

EDITOR SENTINEL.—Would Pol conman Finegan inform the public why he did not interfere to preserve the peace on Monday evening, when Constable Ryan was severely beaten by Havanaugh, in the First Ward? Or is it only a crime to get intoxicated and walk quietly along? It is well known that he (Finegan) was watching the whole transaction, and either from cowardice or some other motive, would not do his duty, though, we believe, requested by several individuals. PROPRIETORS & MANUFACTURERS,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

THE SMOOTHNESS OF THE WORK WHICH GIVES this Mill its superiority, is produced by making the cut in the direction of the fibre of the wood.

The ease with which wood is worked in that direction (great speed of execution), and the flexibility of the shingle which arise from the saw, so that it may be ground thin on its edge, so as to cut away but little of the wood. The shingles now made with this mill rest in this market seventy-five cents per thousand higher than any other sawed shingles.

This mill is made entirely of iron—strong, simple and of the best workmanship, easily worked, and not liable to get out of order.

STEAM FOUNDRY!
—OF—
TURTON & SERCOMB,
296, 298, 300, 302 and 304 West Water St.

IS STILL IN FULL BLAST, WORKING DAY AND night to supply the daily increasing wants of the Badger and other States.

In order the better to do this, the proprietors have erected a large brick Foundry in addition to their former premises. They have added to their stock of Tools a large Planing or Shaping Machine, three Lathes, and a Machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of 10 horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to the former facilities for the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine and Blacksmithing business. They never were in a better position for doing business, and in any department.

In regard to the character of the work got up by this The Oldest Establishment in the State the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation through the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both FRICTION, MECHANICS, and KNOW how work should be done as well as the next man.

They continue to manufacture FLOUR and SAW MILL GEARING, and STEAM ENGINES, on the most approved principles.

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORK, such as GLOBE AND CYLINDER COCKS, OIL CUPS AND CASTINGS, and STEAM WHISTLES. Also TURTON'S FILES, which they will sell at the lowest cash price.

They are also Agents for RANSOM'S PATENT STEAM GAUGES, which is well worth the attention of all those who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Brass Casting and Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

Their motto is, "Excelsior."

F. M. LANE'S
PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT.
Important Improvement in Painting!

A PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT for interior work hasiong been a desideratum. All paints prepared from Linseed Oil, will gradually turn from the lightest and most opposite tints in the yellow color of the oil itself; the change being the more rapid as the paints is excluded from the full light of day.

The subscriber, after a number of years of very large experience in the use, can recommend it as the only Gloss Paint in which this important defect is effectually remedied. This beautiful paint can be applied of any color, from the gayest white, resembling Ivory, to all the different varieties of tints, suitable for private dwellings, Churches, Hotels, &c., whilst in brilliancy and richness of surface it surpasses all other Paints. It possesses other superior advantages in retaining permanently even the most delicate colors with which it is combined.

PINNEY YOUNGS' PATENT SAWING MACHINES.

THESE WELL KNOWN AND POPULAR SAWING MACHINES are the only Machines that do or can cut both ways, and thus unwind instead of rend in sawing. Under the supervision of the inventor, where Machines can be had, will attend to putting up and starting Machines, and to the operation of the Machine, and will guarantee to any purchaser that he can saw more than double the amount of lumber with the same power, and with less than half the expense for saw mills, than can be done with any other machine now in use. Persons wishing to purchase Machines will please call and examine for themselves, as I shall not attempt to describe the plan for sawing with Machines in connection with an upright saw for slabbing the logs, &c., &c., as I am confident that I can give entire satisfaction—as well in the quality of style and fit of my garments, as to price.
